Historical Potential Abounds in this iconic Main Street Building. Original construction by the Masons began in the late 1890's and continued through until 1904. It has been continuously owned by Masonic Associations. This was the location of the first Downtown Theater known as the Temple Theater. This building has a main floor retail location of approx 8800 sq ft. The original staircase connects all three above grade levels as well as the elevator system. Kitchen on the 2nd floor. Bathrooms on all levels.
